

Lowe's Markets Acquires Super S Foods

Heather Wagner, Johnson City Record-Courier

March 30, 2011

Super S Foods grocery stores have been acquired by Lowe's Market based in Littlefield, TX.

Super S Foods has been serving south and central Texas for over 36 years.

Lowe's Markets was founded in 1964 when Bud Lowe and his son, Roger Lowe, purchased their first store in Olton, Texas. Today, the chain is run by Roger Lowe, his wife, Yvette Lowe, their son, Roger Lowe, Jr. and their daughter, Lezlie Lowe. Prior to the acquisition of Super S Foods, Lowe's was comprised of 90 stores located throughout West Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

Lowe's Markets ranked 13th of the top 50 small chains and independents by Supermarket News.

Neither Super S nor Lowe's Markets responded to emails as of press time.

Lowe's Markets are not affiliated with Lowe's, the home improvement store.